

Rio de Janeiro, December 1, 2019

To Prof. Dr. Aart J van der Lely
Head of the Division of Endocrinology and Professor of Endocrinology
Erasmus University MC, Rotterdam, The Netherlands

Dear Prof. van der lely,

The LUIZ CESAR PÓVOA AWARD is one of the most important and prestigious distinctions granted by the Sociedade Brasileira de Endocrinologia & Metabologia (SBEM) every 2 years during the Congresso Brasileiro de Endocrinologia & Metabologia (CBEM). This award is to honor a Brazilian or international endocrinologist who has contributed to a wide range of activities, including clinical practice, research, teaching, scientific publication, professional training and leadership in our field.

We are very pleased and honored to announce that you have been nominated and selected to receive the LUIZ CESAR PÓVOA AWARD during the 34th CBEM, which will be held in Brasilia between September 2-6, 2020. The award ceremony will take place during the scientific program of the Congress, followed by a Plenary Lecture delivered by you, with a title, place and date to be defined in the near future. For your participation, we will cover all expenses related to flight ticket in business class, hotel accommodation, meals and ground transportation.

Your invaluable contribution to Endocrinology is a source of pride to all of us, and your support and friendship with the Brazilian endocrine community over the years makes us very happy and flattered to concede this award to you.

Warm Regards,

Neuton Dornelas Gomes
President CBEM 2020
Secretary SBEM 2019-2020

César Luiz Boguszewski
